CANSKATE / PRE-CANSKATE / PARENT ASSIST WINTER REGISTRATION 2025 B SESSION SUNDAY

M/F/X

CELEBRATING 60 YEARS OF SKATING!

CANSKATE/PRE CANSKATE -- Skate Canada's premium "Learn to Skate" program. (Age - must be 4 by 31 December)

- Provides participants and families with a safe, welcoming and inclusive first experience in the sport of skating.
- > Develop skating and motor skills using skill progression and repetition throughout the six stages to introduce physical literacy and establish quality basic skating skills.
- > Foster personal achievements and satisfaction through skill acquisition, rewards and recognition and to evoke a life-long interest in skating.

The six stages concentrate on BALANCE, CONTROL and AGILITY. Lessons are taught by Professional Coaches and qualified Program Assistants, all High Five Certified. Programs include: weekly incentives, theme days, Santa Skate and a great Annual Ice Show experience.

PARENT ASSIST ON ICE PARENT INFORMATION

PARENT ASSIST - Provides an opportunity for children, aged 4 (Skaters must turn 4 by December 31st), in Pre CanSkate to learn the basics of skating with "one" of their parents/guardians on the ice with them. The parent/guardian is present to assist, support and encourage their young beginner skater and must possess suitable skating skills in order to participate in this program. Parents /guardian will remain part of the lesson until such time as the skater transitions into CanSkate. Parents are subject to the Skate Canada helmet policy. Please note: Parents must complete one form for Skater and one for the Parent

Note: An additional person may register as an "On Ice Parent/Guardian – each registered person is subject to the Skate Canada Fee $61.70.
